

Minotaur Software Ltd.

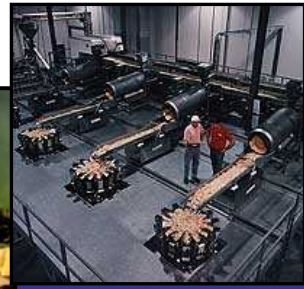

reliable software solutions since 1985

Food Manufacturing and Distribution

The Minotaur Business System is a powerful tool for food companies. Minotaur Software has been focused on this industry since 1985 and has developed the programs necessary to handle this industries unique needs. Whether it be lot number tracking, rebate marketing programs with retailers, direct to store delivery and route based distribution, variable unit of measure tracking, order fulfillment, etc.; Minotaur has the features to simplify the complex and unique requirements of the food industry. For food manufacturers and distributors, Minotaur can provide a powerful solution to improve your business efficiency.

Highlights

- Full Lot control
- Built in Unit Conversion
- Fully integrated EDI
- E-Commerce API
- Barcode capabilities
- Foreign currency management

Additional Features

- Handles variable quantity production and distribution, including detailed fractional quantities.
- Features to assist production of batches, followed by filling of varying container sizes.
- Flexibility to handle ingredient substitutions.
- Detailed Bill of Materials with recipe instructions for proper preparation.
- Can track both finished goods and raw materials by Lot.
- Quality Control test results are tied to the production run and lot number.
- Historical reporting by Lot, to assist product recall. Product expiry reports.
- Quality control specifications can be tied to the production run and lot number. Certificates of analysis can be produced.
- System can be run on an Actual Cost by Lot method, including on Sales Invoice, allowing accurate costing and profit reporting.
- Ability to track co-packing, including your co-packers and companies you co-pack for.
- Includes features to easily handle re-labeling process.
- Rebate Marketing Agreements tracks Co-op, ONA and other programs with retailers.
- Price deals, involving start and end dates, assigned by Customer Group or specific customer.
- Allows generation of barcode labels, and tracking product by barcode.
- EDI capabilities allow system to automatically receive customer orders, and transmit shipping notices and invoices.
- Direct to Store delivery features, including Route Sheet generation.
- Ability to print labels with barcodes. Scanners can be used to ship and receive barcoded items.
- Order Templates can increase order entry accuracy and efficiencies.
- Handles non-sellable Locations, where product can exist yet not be available for sale, such as QC area, lab locations, etc.
- Built-in calculation factors to convert specified measurements on various transactions.
- E-Commerce API allows programmers to connect your web site to your Minotaur system, for order submission, stock checking, etc. (requires configuration programming).

www.minotaursoftware.com

18 Automatic Road. Unit 27, Brampton, Ontario, L6S 5N5
Phone: 1-905-458-7575 1-800-668-1284 Fax: 905-458-5585